

Creek Week

September 18 - September 25

SBCreekWeek.com / Facebook.com/SBCreekWeek

Saturday, September 18

Coastal Cleanup Day

9am-12pm

Help clean your favorite beach! Learn more & sign up to participate at exploreecology.org/ccd. If you can't make Saturday, clean up your fave park, trail, or own neighborhood any-time this month. Collect and submit cleanup data on the Clean Swell app!

Water Wise Homes Bicycle Tour

1-5pm

Join Sweetwater Collaborative for a guided bicycle tour showcasing Water Wise homes. Find details and purchase ticket at sweetwatercollaborative.org.

Monday, September 20

Creek Stewardship: A Panel Discussion

7pm

Join Santa Barbara Urban Creeks Council for an online panel discussion. Find details and register for the event at sb-urbancreeks.org.

Tuesday, September 21

Industrial Cannabis in the Arroyo Paredon Watershed

7pm

Join Santa Barbara Urban Creeks Council for an online panel discussion on cannabis production in Carpinteria. Find details and register for the event at sb-urbancreeks.org.

North Campus Open Space Self-Guided Tour

Tour UCSB's North Campus Open Space. View the map on your smart phone with the QR code here, or visit <https://arcg.is/04W4Xr>. The site is open dawn until dusk, 6969 Whittier Dr. in Goleta.

Storm Drain Chalk Art Contest

Create art at your nearest storm drain! Share a pic on Facebook or Instagram tagged with #sb creekweek for a chance at fun prizes! Pick up free chalk while supplies last at Art From Scrap, 302 E. Cota, Wed-Sat 11am-4pm. Winners to be selected Monday 9/27!

Wednesday, September 22

ReSource Center & Landfill Tour

10:30am-12pm

Take a guided tour of the new ReSource Center and learn how our waste is converted into resources for our community. RSVP Required to Sam Dickinson at SDickinson@cosbpw.net.

Phelps Creek Walk at NCOS

5:15-6:45pm

Join in a guided tour of UCSB's North Campus Open Space restoration. Park along the ocean side of Phelps Rd in Goleta and meet at Phelps Creek. For more information contact chapman@ccber.ucsb.edu.

Tour of Upper Arroyo Burro Restoration at Barger Canyon

5:30pm

Tour the City of Santa Barbara Creeks Division's restoration project on upper Arroyo Burro. RSVP required to Liz Smith at LSmith@SantaBarbaraCA.gov.

Thursday, September 23

Watershed Art Workshop

4pm

Join Explore Ecology for an online art workshop! For more information and to sign up, visit exploreecology.org.

Microplastics in Santa Barbara

6pm

Join the City of SB Creeks Division and UCSB grad student researchers for an online presentation on microplastics in SB's storm water. Register at bit.ly/MicroplasticsInSB.

Friday, September 24

Household Hazardous Waste Recycling Center Tour at UCSB

12-1pm

Join in a tour of the Community Hazardous Waste Collection Center. Age 12 and up, 15 people max. RSVP Required to vkampmann@countyofsb.org. Building 565 Mesa Road on the UCSB campus.

Homelessness and the Environment

7pm

Join Santa Barbara Urban Creeks Council for an online panel discussion. Find details and register for the event at sb-urbancreeks.org.

Saturday, September 25

Walking Tour of Carpinteria Salt Marsh Reserve

9-10am

Join in a walking tour of the UC Natural Reserve System's Carpinteria Salt Marsh. Age 8 and up, 15 people max. Meet at end of Estero Rd. in Carpinteria. RSVP Required to AJBrooks@ucsb.edu.

Falcon Demonstration

10-11:30am

Learn how working falcons keep the Transfer Station free of seagulls. Meet at parking lot before entrance, 4430 Calle Real. For more information contact Cathleen Garnand at CGarnan@cosbpw.net.

Visit sb creekweek.com or Facebook.com/sb creekweek for newly added and updated events!

Updated September 14, 2021